

I1A – ACTUARY

JULY 1, 2002

Title/Class Code	Education/Experience/Licensure/Certification	Substitutions
ACTUARY I I1A1TX	Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university in a field of study directly related to the work assignment, and two years of actuarial work in a regulated insurance company or other related entity, in a consulting actuarial firm, or in governmental work regulating insurance companies or other related entities.	Advanced degrees and additional work experience demonstrating competencies equivalent to the competencies learned through completion of the required education may be substituted for the education.
ACTUARY II I1A2XX	Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university in a field of study directly related to the work assignment, and three years of actuarial work in a regulated insurance company or other related entity, in a consulting actuarial firm, or in governmental work regulating insurance companies or other related entities.	Advanced degrees and additional work experience demonstrating competencies equivalent to the competencies learned through completion of the required education may be substituted for the education.
ACTUARY III I1A3XX	Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university in a field of study directly related to the work assignment, and four years of actuarial work in a regulated insurance company or other related entity, in a consulting actuarial firm, or in governmental work regulating insurance companies or other related entities.	Advanced degrees and additional work experience demonstrating competencies equivalent to the competencies learned through completion of the required education may be substituted for the education.
ACTUARY IV I1A4XX	Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university in a field of study directly related to the work assignment, and six years of actuarial work in a regulated insurance company or other related entity, in a consulting actuarial firm, or in governmental work regulating insurance companies or other related entities. Must be a member of the American Academy of Actuaries (MAAAX)	Advanced degrees and additional work experience demonstrating competencies equivalent to the competencies learned through completion of the required education may be substituted for the education.